

The Rocks 5km/3km Series; Race #1, 18 February 2012

Race Report by John Vaughan

What a turn out for the first of three event sponsored by Active Health Clubs! The decision to move from Holloways Beach to Redlynch Valley Estate has been endorsed with the largest turn out for a Road Runner event in many years 119 competitors dug deep and put in a speedy effort on the 5 km. A further 47 enthusiastic runners, including many children, competed in the 3 km event.

The scenic 5 km course followed Freshwater creek from the tennis courts at the Rocks via the bike path to the Redlynch Valley Estate. With two small inclines and two creek crossings between rainforest and water it showcased what is best about our Cairns lifestyle. Many competitors chose to relax on the grass (not straying too far from the groaning food table) or go for a dip after the race (some of our kids actually dipped before the race as well!)

A sensational finish from Phil Bradshaw with a blistering 15.25 finish on the 5km. Followed by rising star Bini James (16:12) and Wes Swindale (17:01).

A great effort from the girls too, Carmel Bakurski (19:53) pushed though to win round one, setting up an exciting battle for next time, with Susan Crowe (19:56) and Corinne Smith (20:16) hot on the heels. Eleven year old Montanna McAvoy did the 5km in 20:29, Marcel deKievith will need to live that one down – he was 2 seconds behind her! Still, not bad for some hitting 65 this year.

One of the benefits of the separate 3 and 5 km starts was the chance for the many kids in our club to see the “real runners “ (as dubbed by Ceiridwen Vaughan) come through. The kids provided a cheering honour guard to support the runners through.

The favour was returned by many adults with the three km race also well supported. Our 3 km runners put in a big effort. Well done winner Clio Ozanne-Jaques (11:59), Aiden Smith crossed first for the boys (12:33). Poppy Boltz (12:56) and Mackenzie McAvoy (13:13) completed the top three for the girls.

Many parents voiced their delight at the separate starts for the 3 and 5 km races. According to one mum (and loyal runner) it was the first time they'd actually seen their children cross the line. Many photos were undoubtedly taken.

A big thanks to our many volunteers. The many people who helped set up, and pull down, including the official helpers: Mark St Amand, David von Senden; Tony Black; Jim Cavill and Ian Kraska. The great trooper award must go to Pam Palmer for “walking out” with a trolley laden with cups and other items to her turn-around water station. Pam you'll be happy to know we've found a way to get stuff into that point for Rocks#2!

With such a big turn out the patience and persistence of those courageous souls who volunteered to (wo)man the registration, timing and recording must be mentioned: Meagan Cross; Heather Vaughan; Margie Shearer; Alisia Bean; Andrew Simpson; Rhonda Zeylmans; Jake Cashion; Scooter Taylor, Helen Kinnane, Bridget Fearon, Alicia McAvoy, Rob Mackenzie and Lucy. Lorraine Lawson sorted out the paperwork and typed up the results after the race. The popularity award though goes to shoppers Sally Dixon and Donna Lupson and caterers, Dayana Fearon, Nejo Ferik and Jenny

Watson, who produced the awesome spread at the end of the event (the pineapple was particularly good).

What a start to our 3 race series! See you at round 2 – 5 March same time, same place. But before that, you have three other runs to attend! This Saturday, 25 February is the Poker Run (pray for rain!); the following day there is a fun run on the Esplanade to raise funds for Rare Disease Day and on Wednesday, 29 February, come along to the Wednesday night run for a “Leap Year” twist on the regular handicap race.
