

Cairns Road Runners Poker Trail Race, 2 February 2013

On another stinking hot afternoon in Cairns, 102 dedicated runners gathered for the first official Cairns Road Runners race of the year, the Poker Trail Race sponsored by Pump 'n' Pedals who donated 6 $25 store vouchers. Contestants ran for 1 hour and had to choose the 'hard' loop (hilly, 2km) or the 'easy' loop (flat, 1km). As the runners completed each loop, they collected one or two bands. Each band got them 1 playing card. At the end of the hour, the runners collected their cards and played their hand of poker. Well done to the two runners with royal flushes, Debbie Moll and Caroline Hardy, receiving a $25 voucher for Pump 'n' Pedals each. Lucky draw prizes went to David Elms, Michelle Farkas and Aislinn Fearon.

Thanks to all of the volunteers who came to help out: Katie Osmond on registration, David O'Brien on set up, Lorraine Lawson on paperwork, Nick Brand and Alicia McAvoy on marshalling, Alan Waller on water stop and Margie Shearer and Dave Skinner on shopping and catering. And a big thank you to the Race directors Gareth Smith and Christine Bell who put on a great course for the keen trail runners. David O'Brien won the lucky draw for the volunteers.

Upcoming Cairns Road Runners events are the Waitangi Day fun run on 6 February, the Port Douglas sign on and fun run on 10 February and the first of the three Rocks 5km/3km races on 16 February. Details on the Cairns Road Runners website <http://www.roadrunners.org.au/events/>
